

Charles Hogue is a Principal, Bible Teacher and Christian Apologist. He has studied and taught the Bible for many years and has been in Education for over 25 years. He has achieved an AA Degree in Sociology, BA Degree Elementary Education MA in School Administration and a MA in Special Education. In his Education career, he has served as an Elementary Teacher, Special Education Teacher, Coordinator of Special Education, Director of Education, Assistant Principal and Principal. He is the Director of Curriculum for CHM Bible Theater Productions and oversees the writing of biblical scripts to be presented on stage to ensure it aligns with scripture. Crystal and Charles Together have raised three children. Clarissa, Andrew and Kahlil. They both are licensed foster parents, and have provided care and support for 6 foster kids.