

Jeanine Black is a phenomenal Bible Teacher, born and raised by her parents who daily taught her the Bible. She taught the Bible for many years to various groups and at various churches. The Jr. High Sunday School for 15 years and the adult Sunday Morning Bible Study School and area churches for the past 5 years. Jeanine obtained a Bachelors of Education Degree in Christian Education from Johnson and Lincoln Bible College, an Elementary Education Degree from Eastern Illinois University and earned a certificate in Special Education. She also taught in the Danville School District for 5 years and worked the next 40 years in pharmacy at Carle Hospital specializing in 9 different areas. She earned 6 national certificates before retiring from that field. Jeanine currently works at Carle Hospital as a Provider Recruiting Specialist. She has been married to her husband Karl for 34 years, have 2 children Ashley and Todd, and granddaughter Adalynn Rose. She is a CHM Advisor for CHM Bible Theatre Productions and provides guidance for our Biblical community stage play productions.